

My Dear Sir

I thank you for the very agreeable news that you had got safe home & at an early hour in the Evng. - On my return from Church I was not a little surprized to find you had gone off, & much hurt to hear that you were so ill accommodated as to Catferry - The barrel would have carried you on without Disgrace - but Mr. C. F. had then disappointed my wish to supply you - I have sent for the horse twice this day, & am again answered he had rode him out, I believe on a shooting party this day - This is not very proper usage & I have again sent up Harry to ask for the horse - whether he will deceive him or not, I know not - We are all well & shall at all times be glad to hear that you are all so - I found the small box upstairs yesterday & directly lock'd it up - its with my own papers in my Chamber - Adieu! I can't seem to write more by candle light, than that I am affectionately yours
